ON SEPTEMBER 27th, 1880, I will open in the beautiful, picturesque and beautiful village of Warrenton, Va., a FEMALE INSTITUTE. The religious and social advantages of this village are unsurpassed in our country. Only a few miles from the "Fountain of Youth" springs, a place where Northern and Southern capital, added to the fact of the water, is returning to its former celebrity. Few locations combine so much that is favorable to a school enterprise. Having had much experience in teaching, I am competent to take into my hands the management of the school, and as my own children, a number of young girls who are instructed will be conducted by a corps of well qualified teachers.

Terms: English, French and board for school year $20.00; Latin and German each $2.00. Catalogue sent on application. For further particulars address—
Mrs. M. B. BALL, Warrenton, Virginia. aug-16

YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE. ALEXANDRIA. The third annual session of Miss MARY E. BELLINGHAM'S FEMALE YOUNG LADIES' INSTITUTE (LITTLE GIRLS) will begin SEPTEMBER 15th, 1880.

The Principal has had over fifteen years' experience in teaching; taught four years at Baltimore, and was for two years Principal there during the latter part of her stay. She has taught in the families of prominent gentlemen in Virginia; among them the late Dr. A. F. Baldwin, of "Landon." Since coming to Alexandria she has been so successful and has met with so much encouragement (having retained the same pupils through both annual sessions) that she has rented a house, where she will receive, in a desirable and suitable location, on Duke Street, between Royal and Pitt two doors from the corner of Royal. The rooms in this house will be used for school rooms. Her terms for board including washing, fuel, lights and tuition in English branches, are $150 per scholastic year, (10 months); the higher English branches, with Mathematics, Latin, French, Music, Painting and Drawing, will be taught. Tuition for the school year, (10 months), Primary Department $15; Junior $20; Senior $25. Payments to be made one third in advance on the 15th of September, one third on the 15th of October, and one third on the 15th of November. For Circulars, (her pasteur and patron) Bishop P. M. Whitely, of E. B. Montague (former patron) of Shreveport, King and Queen County, Va.; Rev. Dr. F. Sprigg, of Kentucky, and her former patrons in this town.
